kept Andrea Lauren Elegant Interiors on top of all of the action, allowing build-outs and remodels to continue while keeping office doors open for a safe and happy work environment. She has lead this company through thick and thin, and years like this are always the test. In a year full of such surprise and uncertainty, we had absolutely no idea how to gauge the demand for holiday decorating services come year end. That being said, we were fortunate enough to welcome our busiest season yet! Priscilla Castellano has worked AROUND THE CLOCK to ensure that each client's needs were met, and that every day was full of productivity and forward progress.

Great job, Andrea!!! Between interior design, a little real estate on the side, and a bustling family life at home, Andrea Vega-Tompkins stays busy with all of the things she loves most :) Her son Joey (aka: Jo-Jo) is getting so big now - he is such a ham! He is all of a sudden talking up a storm and developing such a big personality. Friday nights are for soccer games now, and the rest of the weekend is for family adventures. Andrea continues to work diligently throughout the week to help manage some of our larger construction projects and client consultations, while staying on top of digital renderings and day-to-day office and design activities.

start at home. Rachel, however, stays designing both on and off the clock! Her family is enjoying her amazing ability to manage renovations at her home in which memories will be made for years to come. And even with the craziness 2020 has brought for school-aged children, Rachel's son was able to graduate high school with honors and start his college education through virtual learning! Her younger daughter has also transitioned well to online classes and is doing great! Their successes are in no small part due to Rachel's devotion to her family and home, all the while juggling dedication at work to every project she manages.

This home saw a complete makeover, with a kitchen relocated to the dining room, and the addition of a guest bathroom AND a laundry room! Pair these items with a new baby nursery and a bedroom transformation for two princesses, and you have one tired design team and another happy client! This remodel went as smooth as could be, and projects like these (for clients like these) make everything in this
